LEGAL ADVISORY CELL

Legal advisory services at college are designed to support students in understanding and exercising their legal rights. These services offer guidance on common legal issues that students may encounter during their academic journey, such as housing, employment, academic integrity, discrimination, harassment, consumer rights, and criminal justice matters. Through legal advisory, Andhra Loyola College aims to foster a safe, fair, and informed campus community.

Legal awareness programs at the college level focus on educating students about their rights, responsibilities, and current legal issues. These initiatives usually consist of workshops and seminars covering topics like employment law, intellectual property, and cyber law, with sessions often led by legal experts or guest speakers.

Vision:

Our vision is to cultivate a student body that is well-informed about their legal rights and responsibilities, actively engages in the pursuit of a just society, and advocates for principles of fairness, equity, and the rule of law.

Mission:

The mission of our college legal awareness program is to empower students with a comprehensive understanding of legal concepts and current issues. We aim to equip students with the knowledge and confidence to assert their rights, make informed decisions, and critically analyze legal and ethical questions. By promoting advocacy for social justice and human rights, ensuring campus safety, and fostering a commitment to a more equitable society, we strive to make a meaningful impact.

Topics covered under the legal awareness programme are

- Constitutional Rights
- Civil Rights and Anti-Discrimination
- Employment Law
- Intellectual Property
- Cyber Law
- Consumer Rights

- Criminal Justice
- Family Law
- Social Justice and Advocacy
- Sexual Harassment (Prevention, Prohibition and Redressal ) Act,2013
- Ragging

Objectives of legal awareness programme

- Raise awareness about contemporary legal issues such as cyber law, intellectual property, employment rights, discrimination, and human rights.
- Equip students with the knowledge to confidently assert their legal rights and seek appropriate legal recourse when dealing with law enforcement.
- Encourage students to engage in critical analysis of legal and ethical issues, fostering informed decision-making and ethical conduct.
- Educate students about legal protections that ensure safety and well-being, including campus safety protocols, anti-harassment laws, and other regulations that safeguard their rights.
- Inspire students to advocate for social justice, human rights, and legal reforms, cultivating a sense of responsibility for creating a fairer, more equitable society.
