AFFORDABLE HEALTHCARE, BRIDGING LEARNING GAP KEY ISSUES FOR VIJ YOUTH

Vijayawada: On a sunny Wednesday evening, amidst the chirping of birds and a curious crowd of onlookers, the 125-foot tall statue of Dr BR Ambedkar representing social justice became animated as 15 young individuals from the city gathered to create TOI's 'Youth Manifesto' for the upcoming May 13 general assembly elections in Andhra Pradesh.

The issues discussed included making healthcare more affordable, bridging the learning gap, ensuring availability of drinking water, and enhancing the city's athlete and pedestrian-friendly infrastructure. Additionally, they expressed concerns about women's security and called on political representatives to improve roads and make transportation more affordable.

"People in the state are dying due to kidney diseases and the root cause is contaminated and impure drinking water. Huge amount of water is wasted annually, leading to struggles during the summer. A permanent solution is necessary for the region affected by kidney issues at A Koniduru. Protected drinking water is the right of every citizen," said Anil Sadhu, a UG student from Vijayawada.

YOUTH MANIFESTO

Vijayawada youth spell out the issues affecting them and their expectations from the govt in their 'Youth Manifesto' during an open forum held at Ambedkar Smriti Vanam in the city on Wednesday

During the discussion on healthcare facilities, J Hashmi, a second-year MBBS student at Siddhartha Medical College, mentioned that political parties are focusing on providing free insurance instead of improving government hospitals. He emphasised the importance of tackling health disasters like Covid-19 in future and suggested that the only solution is to enhance public healthcare system.

Narrating her experience, Yamini Balaram, a 24-year-old animal lover and volunteer at Sanghamitra Foundation, said it is high time people realise and stop harming the environment. "The increase in stray monkey menace in urban areas is attributed to the cutting of trees. Similarly, awareness programmes on taking care of stray animals and protecting snakes should be held regularly," Yamini said.

K Sravya, a 19-year-old graduate from the city, said there is a strong connection between education and employment. "Any mismatch between educational skills and knowledge can lead to a gap between Foundational skills and market demands, ultimately reducing employment opportunities. The ideas of youth should be taken into consideration in policy-making," Sravya opined.

Youth should play a pivotal role in the election process. The 'Youth Manifesto' presented by them have brought to the fore several fresh ideas. We request every first time and youth voters to exercise their right to vote and increase the poll percentage in Andhra Pradesh to 100% - S Dilli Rao | NTR DISTRICT COLLECTOR

DEVELOP PLAYGROUNDS
Vijayawada and other major cities in the state do not have adequate playgrounds. Children are becoming obese as they are not getting enough exercise. The govt should prioritise the development of public playgrounds. Similarly, morning walks and weekly runs should be promoted.

CRIMES AGAINST WOMEN
We do not discuss the abuse that women face. We are accustomed to doing candle light rallies whenever an incident like 'Nirbhaya' or 'Disha' happens. This practice should stop. I request stringent laws that guarantee a decrease in crimes against women to zero. - Usha Jalshani Sharma | Student

MENTAL HEALTH AWARENESS PROGRAMS
Almost 77% of youth face anxiety, stress, and depression due to unemployment and other circumstances. The manifestos should give emphasis on incorporating mental health awareness and rehabilitation programs

CREATION OF LOCAL JOBS
Many B.Tech graduates, including myself, are relocating to different states for job opportunities. As a resident of Andhra Pradesh, I would be voting here this time, but I may shift elsewhere for employment in future. It's crucial for state govt to prioritize the setting up of IT and related sectors within the state. This would enable local job creation, and allow those like me to find suitable jobs without the need to move out. - M Lasya | IITISM STUDENT

FULFIL MANIFESTO PROMISES
Political parties present manifestos during every election. However, they forget their promises later. The common man is unable to question political parties as they lack the right to do so. There should be a law to abolish political parties that ignore people. - Puneeth Reddy | CIVIL SERVICES EXAMINER

DRINKING WATER ACTION PLAN
India has marked 75 years of Independence with pride. However, water scarcity persists, access to clean drinking water remains a fundamental need for many. It's imperative to implement a comprehensive drinking water action plan to address these challenges. The plan should ensure that every citizen has reliable access to potable water, which will prevent the health hazards associated with contaminated water. - Anil Sadhu | STUDENT

ASTHANAS NARTAKIS FOR TEMPLES
Traditional dance forms are often overlooked. Earlier, temples across the state used to have 'asthana nartakis' (in-house dancers). Today, apart from Srisaillam temple, no other temples in the state have in-house dancers. We request to include this in the manifesto so that dancers can receive encouragement and financial support. - Kappa Krishnaveni | KUCHIPUDI DANCER

PROMOTE ANCIENT SPORT LIKE SILAMBAM
Silambam, also known as Karrasamu and Kathisamu, was developed in India as a sport before other sports were even recognised. Silambam is an ancient war-based sport native to India. While games like cricket and hockey are being promoted, authentic local sports are overlooked. We urge the govt to promote local war-based sports like Kattisamu

COMPREHENSIVE ANIMAL WELFARE PLAN
We often hold stray animals and animal lovers responsible whenever there is a dog bite incident. Scientific evidence shows stray dogs only attack when they have been starved for a prolonged period. Community feeding and effective animal birth control (ABC) programs are essential today, which urban local bodies are neglecting. We urge a comprehensive plan for animal welfare and protection

PREVENT ATTACK ON DOCTORS
More govt hospitals should be developed to provide free medical aid instead of promoting corporate hospitals. Doctors risked their lives during Covid-19, yet patients and their attendants feel free to assault us. We demand strong laws to prevent attacks on doctors

POLICY TO END FARMER SUICIDES
Farmers are the backbone of Indian economy. However, successive govt merely provide handouts and have failed to enhance their livelihoods. Policies should be framed to prevent any farmer from committing suicide due to debt burden. Drones and robotic technology should be accessible to farmers to decrease labour costs

PUBLISH DETAILS OF PENDING CRIMINAL CASES AS PER SC GUIDELINES
The Supreme Court's guidelines regarding publishing details of pending criminal cases should be complied by candidates contesting the elections, the high court said on Wednesday adding that candidates should publish details of their pending criminal cases in newspapers three before polling day and also put the same on their respective party websites.

ASTHANAS NARTAKIS FOR TEMPLES
Traditional dance forms are often overlooked. Earlier, temples across the state used to have 'asthana nartakis' (in-house dancers). Today, apart from Srisaillam temple, no other temples in the state have in-house dancers. We request to include this in the manifesto so that dancers can receive encouragement and financial support.

Vijayawada and other major cities in the state do not have adequate playgrounds. Children are becoming obese as they are not getting enough exercise. The govt should prioritise the development of public playgrounds. Similarly, morning walks and weekly runs should be promoted.

Amaravati works will start soon after NDA forms govt, says Naidu

TDP chief N Chandrababu Naidu at a rally in Guntur city on Wednesday.

Vijayawada: Former chief minister and TDP president N Chandrababu Naidu said that work on Amaravati capital city will be restarted soon after coming to power.

Addressing a street corner meeting at Naz Centre in Guntur city after a rally, Naidu said that the YSRCP govt not only destroyed Amaravati but also neglected the development of Guntur.

Naidu said that Amaravati would have become an economic growth engine of the state had the capital works were continued. Naidu appealed to people to think about the opportunities they lost in the last five years. People should ask YSRCP leaders why they should vote for them who destroyed capital which resulted in erosion of value of their assets, said Naidu.

Alaying the fears of Muslims, Naidu said that TDP has always stood for them even when allying with BJP in the past.

Naidu dubbed the Land Titling Act brought in by YSRCP govt as Land Grabbing Act. Addressing public meetings at Chirala and Guntur, he said that if the Land Titling Act comes into force there will be no guarantee for anyone's private property.

"Jagan Mohan Reddy will snatch away the property of anyone by simply changing the details online without the knowledge of the original owners. We will abolish the draconian legislation immediately after coming to power", said Naidu.

'Publish details of pending criminal cases as per SC guidelines'

Vijayawada: The Supreme Court's guidelines regarding publishing details of pending criminal cases should be complied by candidates contesting the elections, the high court said on Wednesday adding that candidates should publish details of their pending criminal cases in newspapers three before polling day and also put the same on their respective party websites.

One Dr Sumala Ramesh Babu filed a PIL seeking directions to publish the details of criminal cases of candidates in vernacular language also along with English.

Arguing on behalf of the petitioner, Karumanchi Indraneel Babu said 80% of the electorate cannot understand English. To enable voters to take an informed decision on who to vote, criminal cases should be published in Telugu language
